GREATER WASHINGTON GOVERNMENT CONTRACTOR AWARDS™

A LETTER FROM THE CO-CHAIRS

Friends and Colleagues,

Welcome to the 10th Annual Greater Washington Government Contractor Awards™, the region's premier event honoring the leaders and legends of the government contracting community!

Tonight, in celebration of our 10th Anniversary, we salute high achieving individuals and companies for their performance, contributions to our industry and communities, and role in shaping and sustaining our vital sector.

A prestigious panel of industry and government professionals selected this year's winners from the largest pool of nominees in the history of the Awards. The winners include companies and executives in a range of revenue levels, as well as two public sector professionals whose achievements over the past year have been truly distinguished.

We are also proud to honor Dr. J. Phillip (Jack) London, Executive Chairman and Chairman of the Board of CACI International Inc, as the 2012 Hall of Fame Honoree for his exceptional achievements over several decades and as a visionary in our industry.

Thank you all for your support of the Greater Washington Government Contractor Awards™, and sharing your time to celebrate with us this evening.

Sincerely,

10th Anniversary

GREATER WASHINGTON GOVERNMENT CONTRACTOR AWARDS™ ABOUT THE AWARDS

The Greater Washington Government Contractor Awards™, celebrating its 10th Anniversary year in 2012, honors the excellence and innovation of the individuals and businesses of the renowned government contracting sector.

Every year, hundreds of nominations and applications are received from across the Washington, D.C., region. The Nominations Committee, comprised of industry experts and observers, carefully review and assess each application and select finalists. Finalists then advance to the Selection Committee, which makes the final determination of the winners.

The Contractor of the Year in each of four revenue categories is selected in recognition of distinguished financial and operational accomplishments and outstanding contributions during the past year to employees, the government contracting industry and the U.S. Government.

The Executive of the Year in each of three revenue categories is selected in recognition of outstanding contributions to a company, the community and the government contracting industry during the past year.

The Public Sector Partner of the Year Award recognizes outstanding procurement professionals for demonstrated leadership and vision in building a spirit of partnership with the private sector and leading change in the procurement community.

The Greater Washington Government Contractor Awards™ Hall of Fame inducts one honoree each year for unparalleled professional excellence and life-long contributions to the community and the government contracting industry. The Hall of Fame honoree is nominated and chosen by the Selection Committee.

He currently serves on the Senior Advisory Board of the Northern Virginia Technology Council (NVTC) and the TechAmerica Public Sector Board. He has served as a commissioner on TechAmerica's Cloud and GTO-21 Commissions. For the past seven years, before founding Attain, Mr. Baroni held various leadership roles at Unisys Corporation and spent nearly 20 years at KPMG Consulting. Mr. Baroni has received numerous industry leadership awards, and is an active leader in the professional association community and in charitable organizations. www.attain.com

Lynette Spano, President & CEO, SCI Consulting, Inc

Growing up in one of the poorest sections of Brooklyn, NY, Ms. Spano learned at an early age that her future was dependent on hard work and perseverance. With that in mind she started Software Control International (SCI) while still in her 20s. While in her first year of business, SCI boasted $1.7 million in revenue. Over the years, her company, now known as SCI Consulting Services, Inc., matured into one of the most respected Federal IT service providers in the industry. In 2013, Ms. Spano will celebrate her 30th year in business. She credits her employees as her greatest asset and her clients as top priority. www.sciworld.com

Phillip Panzarella, President & CEO, CPS Professional Services, LLC

Phillip Panzarella is the President and CEO of CPS Professional Services, LLC; a service-disabled veteran-owned small business. Prior to joining CPS, Mr. Panzarella was the President of Siemens Government Services. An accomplished business leader, Mr. Panzarella draws on 23 years of IT experience and 33 years of leadership and management experience. Prior to his business career, Mr. Panzarella had a distinguished ten year career in the US Army. He is a graduate of Leadership Fairfax '03, currently serves as the Chairman of the Board for Easter Seals Greater Washington-Baltimore Region and is involved in a number of organizations. www.cps-ps.com

Marty Engle, Founder & CEO, The Engle Group

Marty Engle, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of The Engle Group, has been leading TEG for more than 25 years. Through her direction and vision, the company has evolved from a small highly respected computer training company to a leading IT support services provider serving a broad range of government customers. Ms. Engle provides the leadership and guidance that continues to advance the TEG corporate mission, ensuring the balance of customer focus and employee support that is the cornerstone of TEG's success. Prior to founding The Engle Group, Ms. Engle designed and developed the curriculum for the USDA-Information Technology Center-the flagship, and first federal end-user technology support organization. www.theenglegroup.com

Raymond F. Lopez, President & CEO, ESN, Inc.

After 29 years of service in the US Navy, retired Commander Raymond F. Lopez, Jr. started his defense contracting business, Engineering Services Network, Inc. (ESN) in 1995. In 2011, ESN revenues topped more than $51 million. Moreover, from 2010 to 2011, Ray grew ESN by an impressive 46.9 percent. Ray credits his success to expanding ESN's core customer base and to strategic planning, an attribute he honed by coaching high school football in his free time, and leading and preparing men and women to serve while in the US Navy. Ray is always inspiring others to "reach for the stars." www.esncc.com

A WOMAN-OWNED SMALL BUSINESS

FINALISTS: EXECUTIVE OF THE YEAR

($75 - 300 MILLION)

Tony Jimenez, Founder & President, MicroTech

Tony Jimenez is the Founder, President, and CEO of MicroTech-one of the fastest growing businesses in America, and he is known as one of the “Most Influential Hispanics in America.” Recognized for his tireless passion and advocacy for veterans and entrepreneurs, Tony has testified before Congress, served on key government advisory boards, and met with sitting Presidents. He is well-known and respected in government for his significant contributions as a technology innovator and trusted contractor. www.microtech.net

Brad Antle, President & CEO, Salient Federal Solutions, Inc.

President and CEO of Salient Federal Solutions, Inc., Brad Antle brings three decades of experience as a leader in developing and delivering information technology solutions. In 2009, he formed Salient, a Federal IT solutions business. Prior, he was President and CEO of SI International, Inc. and led company growth to $600 million in revenue. Earlier in his career, Brad served in the US Navy for eight years and retired from the Naval Reserve as captain. www.salientfed.com

Mary Williams, President & CTO, MTEQ | Manufacturing Techniques, Inc.

Mary Williams is the President and Chief Technology Officer of MTEQ. Williams began her career as a defense analyst after receiving a Master’s Degree in Electrical Engineering from Virginia Tech. She established her early technical reputation in hyperspectral imaging within the DoD research and development community for applied sensor technologies. In 2005, Williams purchased MTEQ, a 12-employee, $1.5 million company, and within six years transformed it into a 160-employee, $106.2 million full-service solutions provider of innovative engineering services and complex hardware support. www.mteq.com

John B. Wood, Chairman & CEO, Telos Corporation

“John Wood rocks!” At least that’s the word among 400+ Telos customers and other government cyber security experts who have convened each year since 2004 at the Telos-hosted Security Solutions conference. A skilled corporate leader and turnaround artist, committed “civic entrepreneur,” dedicated volunteer, and generous personal and corporate donor, John Wood certainly exemplifies the qualities of the “Good Scout” award with which he was honored in 2010. www.telos.com

GREATER WASHINGTON GOVERNMENT CONTRACTOR AWARDS™ HALL OF FAME HONOREE

Dr. J. Phillip (Jack) London, Executive Chairman and Chairman of the Board, CACI International Inc

Dr. J. Phillip London is Executive Chairman and Chairman of the Board of CACI International Inc, a $3.8 billion information solutions and services company.

After serving as CACI's President and Chief Executive Officer for 23 years, Dr. London stepped out of the CEO role to become Executive Chairman in 2007. Under Dr. London's leadership, CACI has grown from a small professional services consulting firm to become a pacesetter in IT and communications solutions across markets throughout North America and Western Europe. CACI operations today are worldwide and global in nature. Dr. London is known today throughout the industry as the founder of the modern-day CACI.

Chairman of the Board since 1990, Dr. London first joined CACI as a program manager in 1972. He advanced to vice president in 1976, and by 1982 was a division president, managing CACI's extensive work in systems engineering, logistic sciences, and advanced information systems. Having been elected to CACI's Board of Directors in 1981, Dr. London was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer in 1984.

In 1990, Dr. London created CACI's "New Era" strategic vision and successfully transformed the company into a more sharply focused information technology organization for broader opportunities in the rapidly changing IT markets. In 1995, CACI achieved Dr. London's New Era objectives and set company records for revenue and profit. By 1997, Dr. London had begun the next level of transformation within CACI by repositioning the company to center stage in his vision of the "Network World." These moves, under Dr. London's direct guidance, led to CACI's rapid entrée into the information security and intelligence community arenas.

CACI
EVER VIGILANT

CACI has sustained its success in today's new economy in part through Dr. London's highly successful strategic acquisitions program. Since 1992, CACI has made more than 55 acquisitions that have strengthened its position in managed networks, information assurance, and the security and intelligence services markets.

Dr. London is a graduate of the US Naval Academy (1959) and served 12 years active duty with the United States Navy during the Cold War. He is a recipient of many awards, most notably the Albert Einstein Award for Technology Achievement in the Defense Fields, the US Navy League's Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz Award, Executive of the Year in 2005 at the 3rd Annual Greater Washington Government Contractor Awards™ and has been inducted into countless Halls of Fame.

Dr. London currently serves on the Board of Directors of the US Naval Institute, the US Navy Memorial Foundation, the Naval Historical Foundation, and CAUSE (Comfort for America's Uniformed Services), the "wounded warriors" support organization.

ABOUT THE PRESENTING ORGANIZATIONS

Fairfax County Chamber of Commerce

The Fairfax County Chamber of Commerce (Fairfax Chamber), the second largest Chamber of Commerce in the D.C. Metro area and the largest in Northern Virginia, is the premier forum for the region's business community to connect business-to-business and business-to-government. The Chamber provides key access to elected officials and public policy development opportunities for businesses, including government contractors. In addition to the Greater Washington Government Contractor Awards,™ the Chamber facilitates an annual calendar of programming on top government contracting issues, trends and challenges through its widely regarded GovCon Council, as well as unprecedented business development opportunities. To learn more, visit www.fairfaxchamber.org.

Professional Services Council (PSC)

The Professional Services Council (PSC) is the principal national trade association of the federal government's professional and technical services industry. PSC's almost 350 member companies are among the leading small, mid-tier, and large firms providing the full range of professional services to every federal agency. These services include, but are not limited to: informational technology, engineering, logistics, facilities management, operations and maintenance, consulting, international development, scientific, social and environmental services, and more. Together, the association's members employ hundreds of thousands of Americans in all 50 states. PSC is widely regarded as the most respected and effective advocate and services industry - both on Capitol Hill and throughout the federal agencies. To learn more, visit www.pscouncil.org.
